Andrew
Hoff

Andover June 5. 1828.

Dear Sir,

Until today. I have had no opportunity to lay your case before the Faculty. They request me to say to you that a due conformity to the requisitions of our Laws makes it proper for you to renew your request, stating your serious purpose to prosecute your three years course of theological study at New Haven Seminary, excepting the one term already spent here; & stating also about how soon you intend to commence your residence there.

In this course I am aware you will readily accede from your conversation with me; & the reasons why the Faculty think it necessary, I will explain when I see you. I think you stated to me that your accounts with the Treasurer & Librarian were adjusted as the Laws make prerequisite to dismission.

Sincerely yours &c

E. Porter.